restaurants & bars

Rive Gauche is the main restaurant - open for breakfast and dinner. In the evenings, it caters for a variety of tables d'hôte, buffets and gala dinners for half board guests.

La Méditerranée is a poolside, alfresco restaurant and bar set on the beach. It is famous for a splendid Mediterranean à la Carte menu of light lunches and themed evening meals. Afternoon tea and tempting pancakes are served in elegant Creole style.

Indouchine combines the flavours of a multi-cultural heritage, where Indian and Chinese dishes blend harmoniously with a touch of French 'savoir-faire'.

Le Langoustier is an elegant seafood dining room overlooking the spectacular swimming pool and beautiful lagoon. The special four-course lobster extravaganza served on Thursdays and Sundays should not be missed.

Club Savanne is the piano bar and one of the hippest meeting places on the island. Sip an exotic cocktail, enjoy a Cuban cigar and listen to the cool strains of some great Jazz.

Trou Lou Lou Bar overlooks the pool and beach and is your first stop for a thirst quenching drink after a day in the sunshine.

Epicure, the delicatessen in the heart of the lobby, is a unique treasure trove of gourmet delights. Specializing in picnic hampers, it also stocks a range of refined products from caviar to the local favourites, all complimented by a fine selection of rum and international wines and spirits.

With a Kids Club called The Little Mermaid and Trendy New Teens Club there is little doubt that the little – and not so little – people will have many happy hours of activity to look forward to.

The Little Mermaid (09h00 to 21h00) caters for kids between the ages of 3 and 11 years old and is run by three qualified hostesses. A babysitting service is also available on request, for a fee, and for the convenience of both parents and children dinner is served in the main restaurant, from 18h00 to 19h00.. The teenagers' club promises days of fun filled activities.

Beau Rivage has an intimacy that few other hotels of its size have been able to capture. Much of this has to do with the staff that works here, as it is they that, together with the setting and architecture, provide an atmosphere of peaceful elegance that makes this a wonderful place for a romantic holiday.
