'Steeped in fragrances of sugar cane and Creole spices'

Besides the obvious luxurious standards one expects from a Hilton Worldwide Resort, the Hilton Mauritius Resort & Spa boasts a number of special attributes. Not only is it located on one of the finest beaches in the Indian Ocean, but it is also on the preferred west coast. It boasts a choice of four superb restaurants that will keep gastronomes coming back for more. The spa, beauty salon and fitness centre are excellent, which is good news for those who might over indulge in the culinary sense. The resort has an extensive array of leisure and sports facilities to choose from.

restaurants & bars

The Aqua Bar is ideally located between the pool and the ocean and offers front row seats to the beautiful sunsets, which are synonymous with the west coast if the island.

Les Coquillages is also located on the beach and is ideal for light lunches of anything from refreshing salads to grilled rock lobsters or a delicious Club sandwich.

The Melanzane is an elegant, fine dining restaurant with a Mediterranean atmosphere. Specialities include all manner of delicious freshly caught seafood.

Ginger Thai is, as the name suggests, a Thai restaurant offering a unique blend of authentic Asian curries, all prepared by a Thai chef.

La Pomme d'Amour is the open-air restaurant that offers a menu of local specialities and cuisine from around the world.

A great Kids Club caters for children between 4 and 12 years. Experienced and qualified childminders will look after your 'little people' for the entire day.

romance

In spite of the fact that this is a large resort, the setting makes it a wonderfully romantic destination. The relative isolation allows for long lazy strolls along the beach and days without the hustle and bustle of typical resort activity, although it's all there if you want it.
