'a slice of heaven...'

Karafuu is ideally located on a blissful stretch of palm-fringed beach on the east coast with white sand and dazzling blue water - just what you're after in a beach resort! The spacious, cool reception area under makuti (palm thatch) is impressive, especially when you're visiting the resort for the first time. There is an enormous pool around which you'll find guests soaking up the sun. A little further along is the beach, with a generous strip of sand with sun lounges set a good distance apart from each other under the palm trees.

location

Karafuu is situated on the east coast, 65km from Stone Town and the airport.
