restaurants & bars

Restaurants:

Le Mauricia offers a symphony of options in its restaurants, capturing in their atmosphere the buzz and warmth of the surroundings of Grand Baie, known for its liveliness and for the magical quality of its lagoon. Blessed with perfect climatic conditions, all Le Mauricia's restaurants capitalise on magnificent sea views. Relax and enjoy.

L'Archipel Restaurant overlooks the swimming pool, and has a breathtaking view onto the lagoon of Grand Baie. It is the main restaurant of Le Mauricia, seating 400, and is open for breakfast and dinner, offering generous international buffets and colourful theme nights. Adjacent to the restaurant, Les Jardins de l'Archipel awaits you for lunch.

Les Alizés Restaurant is a sophisticated but relaxed à la carte restaurant, which seats 125, and is open for lunch and dinner 6 days a week. With a gorgeous beachfront location, Les Alizés offers light meals like grilled fish, salads, Italian pastas with a tropical touch (Penne à la Creole with garlic, chilli and tomatoes), or Mauritian specialities such as a Damberry fish fillet with pickled palm heart.

Bars:

The Bay Watch is the principal bar of Le Mauricia, where you can also enjoy light savoury snacks. Tables are in the open air, with lovely sea views; this is a perfect location for a fruity time-out during the day or for a casual drink with friends in the late afternoon.

Les Alizés Bar is in the heart of the Les Alizés Restaurant, and a nice option if you want to relax by night or have a cool drink before dinner.

Families often use the Villa described above, or take an apartment in the apartment village, which has its own swimming pool in a walled garden. Children are catered for with the Bob Marlin Miniclub. The club provides attentive hostesses to care for your children and entertain them in a beautifully decorated Creole house nestled in the gardens. Drawing and painting competitions and pool activities, are just some of the many activities which the little ones will be sampling. A baby-sitting service is also available at the hotel at a minimal charge.

Le Mauricia has several beautiful honeymoon suites, finished with white drapes and light colours to convey a romantic touch. Its whirlpool bath and spectacular "lit à baldaquin" make this an exclusive hideaway for two. Alternatively, the Le Mauricia's private Villa, has 2 bedrooms and a spacious lounge fitted with a comfortable couch, allowing for 2 additional beds. Two bathrooms and a private pool are also at hand.
