'A True Mauritian Love Story'

The Paul & Virginie Hotel nestles into the beach near the picturesque village of Grand Gaube on the northwest coast of Mauritius. This relatively new resort is named after two mythical characters, Paul & Virginie, whose romantic tale of love and tragedy inspired the development of this true gem of Mauritian hospitality and service. This hotel may not have the same prestige as some of its more illustrious neighbours, but that isn't for lack of trying.

location

- Set on the beach near the resort village of Grand Gaube in the northwest of the island of Mauritius.
- 1hour drive from the airport
- 40min to Port Louis

romance

Everything about this little resort sings romance! Inspired by a story of great love, the atmosphere of this hotel is intimate and personal. The setting, supposedly opposite the site of the wreck of the Saint Géran, is one of the finest on the island and adds to the warm smiles, excellent service and great food, all of which conspire to make this a wonderfully romantic place in the sun!
