entertainment

The Palms is a luxurious haven of peace and tranquillity and as such one should not expect the lively resort atmosphere that one might experience at the larger hotels on the island. The Palms sister hotel, Breezes Beach Resort, is located next door and this is where one should come if you are looking for evening entertainment.

restaurants & bars

The Dining room forms part of the main house and serves a four course dinner each evening. The décor changes daily and alternates between crisp white linens and rust coloured silks.

There are two bars on the property. The Pool Bar and Lunch Terrace serves a variety of cocktails throughout the day as well as hearty lunches, while the evening bar offers a relaxed atmosphere for pre and after dinner drinks, accompanied by jazz music and candlelight. House wine, beer and their selection of in-house spirits are included in the package. Also included are all meals, water, soft drinks, coffee and tea.

Breakfast is served on the main terrace overlooking the ocean and consists of sparkling wine, a variety of juices, pastries, fruits, tea & coffee, yoghurt and cereals. A cooked breakfast can also be ordered. Fresh fruit is served throughout the day – which is especially good after a morning at the beach. Afternoon Tea is served daily between 4 and 5pm and includes coffee, tea and cakes.
