restaurants & bars

There are 4 restaurants at the resort, offering a wide choice of interesting, mouth-watering meals. The Frangipani is the resort's main restaurant, serving tropical breakfasts from 07h00-10h30 and buffet dinners from 19h00-22h00. Dinner follows a different theme each evening.

Lazare's is a relaxed restaurant, overlooking the floodlit lagoon, offering romantic, a la carte, gourmet dinners.

The Takamaka Deck is an informal restaurant next to the beach is open for Sunday BBQ lunches from 13h00.

The Coco de Mer Pool Restaurant, offering International and Chinese cuisine is open for meals and light snacks from 11h00-22h00.

To quench your thirst, pop in to any of the 4 bars at the resort.

Coco de Mer Pool Bar, offering alcoholic and non-alcoholic thirst-quenchers between 11h00 and 22h00.

Raffles Bar, near the Frangipani Restaurant, is the watering hole for the main restaurant and the Disco, staying open until 02h30.

Lazare's Cocktail Bar, inside Lazare's Restaurant (where else!!) is the ideal spot for an intimate cocktail before that romantic a la carte dinner.

La Buse Casino Bar is conveniently located inside the casino so that even the most hardened gambler can slake his thirst without losing valuable gambling time. This watering hole closes at 02h00 every morning.

families

With special "Family Plan" rates, a children's swimming pool and an excellent Turtle Club for kids, the resort is ideal for a relaxed, family holiday into which you can pack as much or as little activity as you want. For parents who want to take a turn on the dance floor at Raffles or to have a flutter in the Casino, a baby-sitting service is available.

Although the hotel offers special touches for the honeymooner, the sheer size of the resort detracts from the element of romance prevalent throughout the Seychelles. For those in search of serious romance, there are certainly more romantic spots on the islands.
